SAG HARBOR FRESH FACES ON MAIN STREET

BY CHRISTOPHER MURPHY
Eight new businesses opening as workers start

Small businesses are the lifeblood of Sag Harbor, and the town is seeing a new wave of entrepreneurs. Eight new businesses are opening on Main Street as workers start their summer season. The new businesses include a cafe, a boutique, a clothing store, a jewelry store, a hair salon, a fitness studio, a yoga studio, and a pet store. The new businesses are all located on Main Street, which is the heart of the town. The new businesses are all owned by local residents, and they are all excited to be part of the town's growing business community.

PLAY BALL! The Sag Harbor baseball team is set to begin its season on Saturday at the local stadium.

Accept $4.3M Bid For Long Wharf

Mayor says work will begin after summer

BY CHRIS MURPHY
The Sag Harbor Board of Selectmen has accepted a $4.3 million bid for the Long Wharf project. The project will involve the construction of a new wharf and the renovation of the existing wharf. The project is expected to be completed by the end of the year. The Mayor says that work will begin after the summer season. The project is a major investment in the town's infrastructure and will help to attract more businesses and tourists to the area.

One More Run for Trustee

Silas Marler joins race for village office

BY CHRISTOPHER MURPHY
Silas Marler is running for a second term as a trustee of the Sag Harbor Village. Marler is a local resident and has served on the board for several years. He is running against several other candidates. The election will be held in June. Marler says that he is excited to be running for a second term and that he will continue to work hard to improve the village.

$300G for Gym at Learning Center

Board sees Sag Hall as a source of revenue

BY CHRISTOPHER MURPHY
The Sag Harbor Board of Selectmen has approved a $300,000 budget for the new gym at the Learning Center. The gym is expected to be completed by the end of the year. The Board sees Sag Hall as a source of revenue and expects that the gym will help to attract more businesses and tourists to the area. The gym will be a major addition to the town's facilities and will help to improve the quality of life for the residents.
